

Month of Poetry Limestone Coast

No Limits: Upcoming Events

In-person Workshops

March 5th - Engaging the Senses

with Gloria Demillio | Mount Gambier

Engaging the Senses is a workshop in writing and performance where participants will explore how poetry and memory exists in the body through physical movement, expressions and the voice. By expanding the realm of the senses, you will learn how to immerse yourself in deep emotions to give your writing varied dimensions.

March 12th - Who Do You Think You Are?

with Emelia Haskey | Naracoorte

How do we tell the stories that made us? In this workshop, through exploring our scars - both physical and mental - you will create memoir-based poems that develop your personal voice and confidence in sharing your stories with others. This is a gentle and supportive environment to explore and write from a place of vulnerability.

March 27th - Poetry Belongs to All of Us

with Caroline Reid | Mount Gambier

Anyone can write poetry about anything. In this workshop you'll be guided to draft a poem of your own by award winning poet and author Caroline Reid. Suitable for all levels including beginners and those who secretly want to write poetry but don't know how to start. Includes a handout of writing exercises for you to try at home.

Find these events and more at writerssa.org.au

Month of Poetry Limestone Coast

No Limits: Upcoming Events

Naracoorte Fringe

March 12th - For the Love of Words and Wine

with guest poet Emelia Haskey and MC Halli Backler | Wild Game Wine

Settle in for a relaxed afternoon of spoken word poetry paired with your favourite Wild Game wine for this special event featuring spoken word extraordinaire Emelia Haskey. For those who feel inspired to share their talents, register for the open mic section — open to anyone, of all ages. Register via Adelaide Fringe.

Fringe Mount Gambier

March 27th & 28th - SIARAD

by Caroline Reid | Limestone Coast Pantry

SIARAD (a Welsh word meaning “to speak”) is the perfect blend of poetry, theatre and storytelling, adapted from Australian Poetry Slam finalist and author Caroline Reid's 2020 published collection of poetry and prose. SIARAD explores themes of love, relationship, loss, ageing, grief and joy with Reid's self-deprecating honesty, humour and unassuming conversational style drawing her audience into this spoken word theatre performance with a consistent element of surprise.

Tickets via Adelaide Fringe.

Presented by Writers SA with support from the Adelaide Fringe Artist Fund and the Arts South Australia Arts Recovery Fund.

Find these events and more at writerssa.org.au

Month of Poetry Limestone Coast

No Limits: Upcoming Events

Other Opportunities

Writer in Residence - Jude Aquilina

Various activities and locations until March 7th | Limestone Coast

Jude will be visiting several towns in the Limestone Coast region to connect with readers and writers through free workshops, one-on-one consultations with writers at all stages of their careers, and other opportunities to share her knowledge of writing and publishing.

Raining Poetry in the Regions

Submissions close 4th April 2022 | Statewide

Writers SA are calling for poetry submissions from writers of any age living anywhere in regional South Australia, with poems set to magically appear in selected locations when it rains.

Online Workshop

March 9th - Thousands of Words: Visual Poems

with Rory Green | Online

In this special workshop for World Poetry Day you'll explore the possibilities of digital tools to create poems that combine text and image. Beginning with an overview of concrete, collage and other visual poetry movements, you'll then be guided through a series of practical exercises to create hybrid poems of text and image. This workshop will equip you with the tools and resources you need to get started: from the ethics of sourcing and adapting pre-existing visual material to the digital tools that make it simple and approachable to explore multimedia forms.

Find these events and more at writerssa.org.au