

CONTEXT WRITERS FESTIVAL 22—24 SEPT

An initiative of the City of Adelaide delivered in partnership with Writers SA

Adelaide City Library
September 22-24
Free. Reserve your tickets
writerssa.org.au/context

New conversations
about story, agency + truth

Alice Pung
Amani Haydar
Anna Solding
Dominic Guerrera
Elena Carapetis
Hannah Coleman
Melanie Pryor
Michael Bollen
Nat Luna
Nathan May
Pip Williams
Raneesha Saberi
Smriti Daniel
Stephanie Mylan
Tamara Montina
Vivana Luzochimana
+ more

Adelaide City Library
writerssa.org.au/context

Context Writers Festival is a free, three-day festival for writers and readers to connect and share new conversations.

An initiative of the City of Adelaide delivered in partnership by Writers SA, and guest curated by Tamara Montina, the 2023 Context Festival features a diverse range of local and national artists, held on Kaurna Yarta (Adelaide), from 22-24 September.

This year's program explores storytelling across mediums and genres, publishing, advocacy in writing and more. The line-up features Pip Williams (SA), Alice Pung (VIC), Dominic Guerrero (SA), Amani Haydar (NSW) and many more.

Friday 22 September

Opening Night

6:00 pm — 7:45 pm

With Dominic Guerrero, Q+A with Walter Marsh

Saturday 23 September

Writing Workshop

11:00 am - 12:30 pm

With Alice Pung

Longtable Discussion

1:00 pm — 2:00 pm

Interactive panel with author Alice Pung and Melanie Pryor

Performance: Music and Poetry

2:15 pm — 3:15 pm

With Vivana Luzochimana, Hannah Coleman, Nat Luna, Nathan May, Raneesha Saberi, Stephanie Mylan

Panel: Advocacy in Writing

3:30 pm — 4:30 pm

With Pip Williams, Elena Carapetis, Smriti Daniel

Sunday 24 September

Writing Workshop

12:30 pm — 2:00 pm

With Amani Haydar

Panel: Publishers

2:15 pm — 3:20 pm

With Michael Bollen (Wakefield Press) and Anna Solding (MidnightSun)

Closing Event

3:25 pm — 4:25 pm

With Amani Haydar and Tamara Montina